As a versatile project & program coordinator, I've cultivated significant experience through my roles at Cultural Festival UGM Residence, PPSMB Fakultas Filsafat, PPI Dunia Mengabdi, and as an English Tutor and YouTube Content Translator. These experiences encompass comprehensive project leadership, including end-to-end event execution and program development, alongside dynamic team management and effective cross-cultural communication. My background also includes designing engaging educational initiatives, fostering community well-being, and spearheading initiatives to promote social harmony and cultural understanding, further enhanced by advanced English proficiency in nuanced content translation for global audiences.
